By Signing below you agree to abide by all rules and regulations of WSVRHA

Amateurs and youth may show leased horses subject to the following:

- The Owner (Lessee) and Lessor must be members in good standing of WSVRHA
- Prior to the lessee (amateur or youth) showing the leased horse, WSVRHA must have received and recorded a showing lease form and a WSVRHA Horse ID Application must be on file.
- The lessee must be responsible for expenses associated with the care of the horse: boarding, feeding, routine farrier services and routine veterinary services;
- During the term of the showing lease, only the lessee and lessee's IMMEDIATE FAMILY may show the horse. The lessee's trainer may also show the horse in Open Division classes. During the term of the lease, the horse may be shown by other eligible exhibitors in Open Division including the lessee'
- The term of the lease must be for a minimum one-year period, and the lease must be to an individual only. If the lease is terminated for any reason before the minimum one-year period, the horse can only be shown in the Open Division, until one year has passed since the original start date of the lease;
- Only one showing lease at a time per horse will be recognized;
- During the term of a showing lease, subsequent changes in ownership will not be recorded until the showing lease is terminated;
- If a lessee qualifies the horse for and intends to exhibit the horse at an WSVRHA Championship Show, a showing lease must be in effect and on file with WSVRHA at the time the lessee (a) enters the horse into the Championship Show and (b) exhibits the horse at the Championship Show. Should a showing lease expire prior to the above times, a new showing lease will be required.
